

Objectives

(verb+ing) _____ of the _____,
Participles

Present and past participle phrases

Rewrite the following sentences using present or past participle phrases.

1. The teachers could not finish the lesson because the class was too noisy.

2. Veronica was hanging her clothes on the balcony when a bird flew in.

3. The pianist performed a breathtaking piece. His eyes were closed the entire time.

4. The students put in full effort with their reading comprehension and had amazing scores.

5. The girls read a book on the way home. They started to feel dizzy because of motion sickness.

6. My name was given by my grandmother. It was a meaning of good fortune.

Complete the following passage by using the correct forms of verbs.

1. _____ (terrify) by the extreme weather, two brothers Ivan and Timothy quickly moved all their laundry indoors. After 2. _____ (finish) their lunch, they sealed the windows tight and 3. _____ (make) sure any strong wind would not be able to open it. Ivan called his sister and sent her the information 4. _____ (contain) all the details on ways to counter a strong typhoon. Soon, the dogs barked loudly, and cats screamed. The original bright blue sky 5. _____ (darken) and wind began to howl as loud as a washing machine. 6. _____ (annoy) by the noise from outside, the two brothers put on classical music and awaited patiently for the typhoon to come.