

Objectives

Present Perfect Tense, Passive Voice, Active Voice, Conditionals

Mixed tenses

Finish the passage by changing the correct form of verbs.

Once upon a time in a small cottage up the mountains, 1. _____ (live) a family. This family never 2. _____ (leave) the mountains for two generations because they 3. _____ (threaten) by their enemies in their grandparents' time. Hence, the entire family 4. _____ (stay) there until last week.

The youngest daughter in this family 5. _____ (call) Daria. Her parents 6. _____ (give) her this name on a cloudy day a minutes after her mother 7. _____ (give) to her. Daria's father 8. _____ (have) biases that the entire world 9. _____ (be) full of dreadful things. He 10. _____ (forbid) his children to leave the mountains when Daria 11. _____ (grow) up.

As Daria 12. _____ (begin) to grow older each day on the mountains, she gradually 13. _____ (discover) a whole new world at the bottom of the mountains. If her dad 14. _____ (not stop) them from going down the mountains, she 15. _____ (live) another life. She 16. _____ (pluck) up with courage to ask her dad one day whether she could head down to the mountains. However, much to her surprise, she 17. _____ (slap) on her face. Daria 18. _____ (cover) her face and soon tears 19. _____ (form) in her eyes. She looked down to the ground and 20. _____ (not understand) why her dad 21. _____ (treat) her like this.

That night, the most important decision 22. _____ (make) through Daria's life. She 23. _____ (decide) to run away from this family forever. She 24. _____ (pack) all her beloved things and 25. _____ (escape) down to the mountains. There, she 26. _____ (live) the life which she 27. _____.