

Objectives

Prefixes

mis/ dis/ un/ re/ non

Prefix

Fill in the blanks with the correct prefixes.

1. This is completely _____ (sense) and absolutely absurd!
2. Look at those oranges on _____ (count), most of it is rotten and give a bad odor.
3. It is _____ (fortunate) to know your pet had passed away last Summer.
4. I think you should not rushed into conclusion at such as early stage so soon, everything is still _____ (decided).
5. I love reading _____ (fiction) books, especially those books published by NASA.
6. Do you mind tidying up your room? Every toys here are being _____ (placed) like a shipwreck scene.

Finish the passage by writing the words with its prefixes.

Dear Diary,

Today a new student came into our class. He is very rude to his classmates and teachers! He is 1. _____ (liked) by everyone because of his 2. _____ (chievious) behavior. He even splashed water onto Ms. Cornell's face which made her 3. _____ (happy) and put clay all over our chairs which was very 4. _____ (comfortable). Luckily we were all 5. _____ (hurt). However, the situation got so serious that Principal Kelly had to talk to the boy afterschool but he lied and was 6. _____ (honest). His parents came and had a big argument with the principal! At last, the boy was suspended. The principal welcome them to 7. _____ (apply) to this school but unlikely he will be accepted.